

PLAY SOCCER Nonprofit International (PSNI) is the US-based founding organization and umbrella for the PLAY SOCCER Network. The PSNI's Board of Directors serves on a voluntary basis without pay in the USA. Each of the Network's six affiliated country organizations has a voluntary board of directors that also serves without pay.

Judy McPherson serves as the Chair of the PLAY SOCCER Nonprofit International Board (PSNI) and PSNI's Chief Executive Officer. After retiring as Deputy Director at UNICEF in 1999, Judy founded PLAY SOCCER and has been engaged and committed since then as a full time volunteer for the organization's development and management. The holistic core program of the organization is shaped by her lifelong interest in socio-economic development and her diverse professional experience and training. After completing a Bachelor of Science degree at Columbia University, Judy went on to work in public health in New York City and other locations before earning an MPA from Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. Following graduate study, Judy joined Chase Manhattan Bank and completed its training program in international banking; was the director and a founding member of the Women's Institute for Continuing Education at the American University in Paris; a consultant at the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD); and a Vice President at Gulf International Bank (GIB) in New York, before joining UNICEF headquarters in New York in 1990.

Sarah Mukebezi Kambites serves as Vice Chair of PLAY SOCCER and was deeply involved in the design of its original holistic program and initial country activities. A native of Uganda and now a resident of Canada, Sarah is currently the Director of Education and Community Initiatives for the United Nations Association of Canada. Sarah holds a Doctorate in Education from McGill University.

Michael Connery is the Treasurer of PLAY SOCCER. Mike is the President and Chief Executive of the United Nations Federal Credit Union, a $2 billion full-service financial institution that serves the UN Agencies and community in New York, Geneva, and Kenya.
